THE HISTORY OF THE ALCOTT

Our story begins with a stone.

A simple, sandstone block, the foundation of a grand new home: Landers House. Built in 1897 by Jonathon Landers on 16 ½ acres of land, it was the first significant dwelling in the greater Lane Cove area.

More than 120 years later, and after several transformations of the original cottage, we welcome you to The Alcott. Meaning 'from the old cottage', it's a nod to our origins, and a sign we're still making history.

Like the original Landers House, The Alcott is a first for the area. From the vibrant spritz bar and inspired outdoor dining terrace, to the exclusive event spaces and a dedicated place to play, The Alcott is a place for locals to connect and relax without leaving the lower north shore.

Where mid-century design intersects with contemporary style for old-school cool. Where, filled with intimate nooks and surrounded by history, you'll find your own special place at The Alcott and you won't want to leave.

Where, with award-winning Head Chef Richard Slarp, from Sake, Aria Catering, Est, and Slip Inn, you'll find a fresh, locally sourced, Mediterranean-inspired menu that's just meant to be shared with friends.
