

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

The Alcott is open to Members and their Guests

All Members & Guests must sign in at either our reception or concierge desk upon arriving and your contact number will be collected.

All members and guests will be temperature checked upon entering the venue.

Anybody showing signs of being unwell or who has a temperature will not be permitted entry into the venue.

Your entry to The Alcott is conditional on acceptance of the following conditions:

- 1: That I do not have any symptoms of fever, sore throat, temperature or illness, fatigue or shortness of breath
- 2: That I have not been in the company of anyone exhibiting symptoms as above
- 3: A form of identification will be required to verify name & address
- 4: I accept that I will abide by social distancing requirements
- 5: That if requested to, records of members and guest's attendance will be provided to relevant government departments specifically for COVID-19 tracing
- 6: Any non-compliance of above or with a direction to move, relocate or leave the venue from non-compliance may result in your details being passed to authorities. (Standard fail to quit law apply here)
- 7: That I have not been either overseas, or in contact with someone who has returned from overseas in the past 14 days.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION
